TO MEET IN CHARLESTON.

Next Session of the National Educational Association

IT WILL MEET NEXT JUNE.

The Vote on the Roberts Resolution—Representative Kitchen Votes Negatively.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Charleston, South Carolina, is making earnest efforts to secure the next convention of the national educational association, which assembles in June next, and the chances are that the meeting will go to that city, which will be pleasing generally to the southern members of the association. Mr. Kaufman, a leading citizen of Charleston, who is in the city on matters of interest to his city and state, said yesterday when seen at the Hotel Raleigh, that he had met Dr. Irving Sheppard, the secretary of the national educational association, and presented upon him most earnestly that no obstacle should be allowed to prevent the holding of the convention of the national educational association at Charleston next June.

Dr. Sheppard, who is one of the most eminent educators in the country, assured Mr. Kaufman that it is the wish of every one of the members of the committee that the body should hold its next convention at Charleston. It is a question entirely dependent upon the trunk lines leading out of Washington northward. Dr. Sheppard had on Thursday and yesterday an interview with Col. Turk, of the Southern railroad, who is doing all that he can to secure the necessary concessions from northern lines. Dr. Sheppard proposed to visit Baltimore to use his influence with the general agent of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad to grant the same privileges always given the association. They are only asking now what they have always received. From Baltimore he will proceed to Philadelphia to confer with the manager of the Pennsylvania railroad, and will then go on to New York city to attend the meeting of the Trunk Line managers, which is to be held in that city on the 30th inst.

Dr. Sheppard yesterday had a conference with Mr. Fuller, the general manager of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad, with the view of securing his cooperation. Mr. Kaufman says that it will not be the fault of Col. Turk, Dr. Sheppard, nor the managers of the lines leading into Charleston, if that city fails to get the convention of the national educational association.

While at New York city, Dr. Sheppard will also have a conference with President Carson, of the national educational association, when final arrangements will be made. On the final vote on the adoption of the majority resolutions in the Roberts case, three Virginia members voted in the opposition, they were Epps, Hay and Swanson. Kitchen, of North Carolina, was the only member from that state who voted in the negative on the final vote, although on the first test, on the adoption of the minority resolutions several North Carolina democrats voted for them.

Strange as it may appear, on the final test against Roberts being allowed to become a member in the house of representatives, of the fifty votes cast in the negative, forty-four were from the southern states, including Kentucky and Missouri, while but six were from the north, including the states of Pennsylvania, New York, Nevada and Idaho. Congressman Epps, of Virginia, has introduced the bill to establish a national military park at the battlefields around Petersburg.

Ex-Representative Libbey, of Virginia, according to his annual custom sent to the press gallery of the house of representatives yesterday a fine lot of oysters from Norfolk, which were served in the lobby adjoining the gallery to the members of the press. This compliment of Libbey to the press correspondents is always much appreciated.

Representative Thomas, of North Carolina, has introduced bills to direct the secretary of war to cause a survey to be made of Trent river, and Big Swift creek, Craven county, North Carolina. New postoffices have been established at Boykin, Anson county, and at Knox, Moore county.

Notice of Compulsory Vaccination.
The board of commissioners of Guilford county believing it to be necessary for the protection of the health of the citizens of the county, hereby order compulsory vaccination in Morehead and Gilmer townships, under the direction of the county board of health. Any person residing in these townships neglecting or refusing to be vaccinated shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than five nor more than fifty dollars, or imprisoned not less than ten nor more than thirty days.

W. C. Boren, Chairman.
W. H. Ragan,
W. C. Michael,
Commissioners of Guilford County.

BROUGHTON'S NEW IDEAS.

He Wants to Serve Drinks and Have Comic Opera Shows at Church.

Rev. Dr. Len. G. Broughton, who is a native of Raleigh, is assisting in a big revival in Brooklyn, N. Y., and his views as given in his sermons, are attracting much attention. Sunday last Dr. Broughton preached at the Green Avenue Baptist church, Brooklyn, at which time he advanced, according to reports, some strange and original methods for the necessity of church attendance.

In the course of his remarks Dr. Broughton is reported as having said: "There are 60,000,000 sinners in the United States. Not one man in 10,000 stops to think of God until he comes to die. Religion is going backward. It is the fault of the church, too. Ministers are at a standstill. They are losing their power. As a drawing card the church ranks only sixth in the list of public attractions. It should be made to rank first."

"The church should be made as attractive as the theatre and the cakewalk. Something must be done to bring the people into the churches, not on Sundays, but every day of the week. To do this we must make the church both a business proposition and a place of attraction."

There are 10,000 people who will pay $20,000 for theatres before they will enter a church and give five cents to God. There are 50,000 men who will pay $1,000,000 to see a prize fight and would insult any one who would ask them to give 25 cents apiece for religion.

There are 30,000 women who would pay $10,000,000 for dresses for fashion who would not take the trouble to get up early enough on Sunday to attend church.

"I want to see the man who can do that statement."

"First of all, it behooves every minister to make his church as attractive as possible. It is merely putting God at the head of all things, where He belongs."

If it is necessary to bring people to church, we ministers might go so far as to have a service where the biograph could be introduced with Biblical pictures, and with other pictures.

"For the men who put prize-fighting ahead of God? We might go so far as to have a few rounds of boxing before the service."

"Perhaps a one-act comedy might induce the theatrically inclined to stay until after the sermon was over."

"Then to attract many others, we might turn the church into a temporary case, where we might serve soft drinks between prayers."

"Theatres, cards, kissing-parties, prize fights, cake-walks and fashion, all mingled into one inharmonious whole, engage the people. They engage the people so strongly that they do not feel the power of God—until their dissipated lives are waning and they are dying."

The New York World artist has chosen Dr. Broughton's sermon as a subject for illustrations and in a series of four pictures has represented the evangelist in the roles of a nickel-in-the-slot machine operator; a contestant for pugilistic honors with one of his flock; as Hamlet, with "to be and not to be" as a theme; and "thoroughly modern. The last picture represents the gentleman from Georgia in the act of serving drinks (soft) to his hearers.—Charlotte News.

The Smallpox Situation.
A young lady from Greensboro managed to escape the notice of the quarantine officer on the train from that city yesterday and arrived here in the afternoon to work in the knitting mill.

Mayor Cook, who was in Wilmington, heard about it shortly afterwards and telegraphed to have her return to Greensboro at once. This the young lady did today.

A young gentleman of this city had quite an unpleasant experience at Aberdeen the other day. As soon as it was learned at the hotel, at which he was stopping, that he was from Fayetteville, the guests all fled from him. He had to seek his room by himself and no one would fetch him water or towels.

The next morning he found his breakfast already prepared, but no one to serve him, and when he started to leave, there was no one to settle with, so he placed what he thought was the proper score on the table, and himself fled.—Fayetteville Observer.

PROF. WHITSETT RESIGNS
And Superintendent Nebane Elected to Succeed Him.

The executive committee of the Teachers' Assembly met at the Yarrow House last night and was in session from 8 till 12 o'clock.

The principal business transacted was the acceptance of the resignation of Prof. W. T. Whitsett as secretary and the election of State Superintendent Nebane to succeed him.

Prof. Whitsett was compelled by the press of work in his school to give up the secretary. His resignation was accepted by the committee with expression of sincere regret and appreciation of his services.

The time and place for the next Assembly was not determined upon last night, but all indications point to Morehead as the place of meeting this summer.

TRINITY COLLEGE NOTES.

A New Residence for President Kilgo at Trinity Park.

A large and handsome residence is being built for President Kilgo at Trinity Park. The plans were made by Hook & Sawyer, of Charlotte. The house is very conveniently arranged, the first floor being especially adapted for receptions. It is located on the western part of the campus and will add much to the general appearance of the park.

Prof. Mims, of the English Department, is editing Cooper's "Last of the Mohicans" for the new series of English classics to be published by the B. F. Johnson Publishing Co. Prof. W. P. Trent is general editor of the series. He is also contributing a biography and critical study of Thomas Nelson Page, for the second volume of "Southern Writers," to be published as a memorial volume for Dr. W. M. Baskerville, who wrote the first volume.

Dr. J. S. Bassett is engaged in some historical work for B. F. Johnson Co. to appear next year.

Rev. Isaac W. Arent, of the North Carolina conference, who died last week, left his library consisting of a valuable collection of books to the library of Trinity College. Mr. Arent was a warm friend to the institution and this gift is highly appreciated both for its value and for the spirit which prompted it. Mr. Arent also bequeathed to the North Carolina Conference his entire estate, subject to the life tenure of his wife.

A handsome portrait of Angier Duke has been placed in the Angier Gymnasium. The gymnasium, which was his gift to the institution, was named in his honor.

The science club has appointed a committee to put portraits of Dr. John P. Crowell and Mr. B. N. Duke in the vestibule of the Crowell Science Hall. This building was erected by Dr. Crowell in memory of his wife, and it has received its splendid equipment from Mr. Duke.

The committee of the West Durham Library, of which Prof. Jerome Dowd is chairman, opened the public library at West Durham Wednesday evening. There was a large crowd present. Mr. W. A. Erwin, who has taken great interest in the enterprise, made an address, and great interest was manifested.

The material for the new catalogue is now in the hands of the printer, and in a short while the catalogues will be ready for distribution.

The students are now in the midst of examinations. Next term will open February 1st.

Prof. W. H. Pegram has returned from Harnett county, where he went to attend the burial of his brother-in-law, Rev. Isaac V. Arent.

E. V. Spencer, of the freshman class, was called to his home Tuesday by a telegram announcing the serious illness of his mother.

SEIZES THE HEMP PROVINCE.
Very Little Resistance Met by the Americans.

Manila, Jan. 26.—A dispatch from Sorsogon, dated Thursday, January 26th, says Brigadier General Kobbe's expedition has occupied Sorsogon, Donsol, Bulan, Legaspi, where five Americans were wounded and forty-five dead and fifteen wounded Filipino were found.

It is estimated that there are 125,000 bales of hemp in the provinces and 77,000 bales in the ports of Sorsogon and Legaspi. The United States gunboat Nashville's shrapnel burned 80,000 bales in Legaspi. The expedition arrived at Sorsogon January 20th and the town displayed white flags. General Kobbe and Col. Howe, with a battalion of the infantry, landed at the house of Miss Sallie Love. The insurgent forces, numbering three hundred men, evacuated the place. The natives were passive. During the morning of January 23rd the Nashville and Venus, with four companies of the 4th infantry regiment, under Maj. Shipton, approached Legaspi. Filipino flags were flying and the trenches were crowded. A detachment of 250 men led by Maj. Shipton, landed on the beach about a mile north of the town, the Nashville bombarded the trenches and the enemy retreated to Albany, whence they were easily dispersed to the hills.

About two hundred insurgents, armed with rifles, forced six hundred unwilling villagers, armed with bows and arrows, to serve in the trenches in the close range street fighting before the enemy fled. The Filipinos were mostly villagers who were attempting to flee.

The expedition will proceed to Samar and Leyte, where the 43d infantry and a battalion of the 3d artillery will be distributed.

The natives complain of lack of food, resulting from the blockade. They are strongly opposed to the return of the friars. Native priests are officiating in the churches.

Lieut. Col. Webb C. Hayes has defeated an entrenched force of the enemy at Sariaga. One American was killed and five were wounded.

A record of 11 American prisoners was found. Captain Casteel, while scouting near Baras, with his company encountered 400 insurgents. He was reinforced by Captain Gracie and the enemy was driven to Tansy. One American was killed and one was wounded.

VERY LITTLE NEWS TODAY

From the Seat of War in South Africa

EVACUATION OF SPION KOP

Not so Serious as at First Thought. Reports That Buller Must Retreat Over the Tugela.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Berlin, Jan. 27.—Some newspapers here say they have cable messages from Pretoria saying that Warren was enticed into Spion Kop, where the Boers fell upon him; that seventeen of his cannon were captured, and that a hasty retreat over the Tugela river alone can save Buller.

London, Jan. 27, 1:15 p. m.—The war office has no news of the catastrophe to Buller's force reported from Berlin and discredits the story. Neither has the war office any explanation of the abandonment of Spion Kop, and there are no advices in this connection from independent sources. The disposition today is not to regard the evacuation as so serious a matter as at first thought.

The last detachment of the infantry section of London volunteers, numbering 131 men, were entrained this morning for Southampton, where they will embark for Africa. The route from Wellington barracks to Nine Elms station was thronged with cheering spectators, but not to the same degree as on previous occasions, so the order of march was undisturbed. The Lord Mayor and sheriffs accompanied the troops to Southampton.

Lorenzo, Marques, Jan. 27.—It is reported on good authority that Mafeking was relieved January 22d.

Boer Camp, Modder Spruit, upper Tugela, Jan. 23.—The British are endeavoring, with a column of forty thousand, to force Spion Kop, on the route to Ladysmith. Firing on both sides yesterday was terrific. Grass has been fired, rocks dislodged and trenches pierced, but the battle is practically one-sided. Burgheers fired only thirty shots. A ball from a shell landed in Gen. Buller's pocket. The only casualties on the Boers' side, were some horses wounded. The firing ceased at dark but was resumed this morning in the vicinity of Ladysmith and here, but up till noon lack of vigor.

TWO MEN LYNCHED.
Two Others Recaptured and Brought Back to Pentonitary.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Canton, City, Cal., Jan. 27.—Thomas Reynolds was lynched last night. He was captured near Florence and immediately brought to this city. At the edge of town he was met by a large mob, taken from the officers and strung to a telephone pole, in full view of the penitentiary.

Reynolds and three other prisoners murdered Capt. Rooney, the guard, and escaped from the penitentiary Monday night. The murder was cold blooded, as it was unnecessary to help them make their escape.

The posse is close on the trail of Wagner. This fourth murderer, if taken will share Reynolds' fate. Anthony Wood and Kid Wallace were captured yesterday and are safe within penitentiary walls.

D-over, Jan. 27.—A rumor reached here this morning that Wagner had been captured and lynched.

A Pleading Event.
Last night, in response to invitations, a party of young people gathered at the home of Miss Sallie Love, on Ashe street, where a pleasant evening was spent. Various games were played, after which delicious refreshments were served. Several selections of music, instrumental and vocal, were beautifully rendered. The time was so pleasantly spent that the midnight hour was near before the evening was hardly begun. The company, with words of praise for their charming hostess, bade her good-night.

IS PORTO RICO PART OF U. S.
Federal Courts Must Pass Upon the Question.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 25.—A suit has been entered by the United States Tobacco Company, of Lowell, Mass., against the United States, with a view of recovering duties paid upon tobacco imported from Porto Rico, and it raises the very interesting question whether Porto Rico is to be considered a part of the United States. The federal courts will in all probability be obliged to determine the issue.

Today a motion was filed by the United States district attorney praying for the transfer of the suit from the superior court to the United States court. The Amos-Pearson Tobacco Company alleges that the duties imposed were illegal, on the ground that Porto Rico is a part of the United States, and that duties could not, therefore, be levied upon goods or articles sent from one part of the United States to another.

Story of a Slave.
To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. Geo. D. Williams of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle-working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run-down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

BOOKER WASHINGTON ON NEGRO SUFFRAGE.

Booker Washington, the leading negro in America, favors an educational or a property qualification to guard the ballot against ignorant voters. Booker Washington is a negro, very intelligent and progressive, to be sure, but yet a negro. Being a negro, he naturally believes that an "ignorant negro" is as good as an "ignorant white man." But right here he is egregiously mistaken. "Ignorant white men," so-called, have been voting in North Carolina for more than sixty years, and have themselves to be worthy of the ballot. They have shown more capacity for self-government and a better knowledge of political affairs than even the best educated negroes, much less the great mass of black ignorance, stupidity and corruptibility that is periodically driven to the polls and voted like sheep by wicked and unscrupulous politicians. The "ignorant negro" has been voting for thirty years and has no more capacity for self-government nor ability to comprehend the real principles of government than a monkey or a billy-goat.

We are not in the least surprised that Booker Washington, himself a negro, should think a vicious, ignorant, degraded negro as good a voter as a poor illiterate white man. But what shall we think of Pritchard and Butler for holding such opinions? They threaten to disfranchise the poor and illiterate whites, if the most ignorant, degraded, vicious negroes are disfranchised. And yet they claim to be the friend of the poor white! No wonder they think him as sorry as the negro!—News and Observer.

"Whip this gang out of the state," says Butler, meaning the white people who are pushing the amendment. Does that renegade son of North Carolina stop to consider that this "gang" whom he talks so flippantly about "whipping out of the state" represents the wealth and intelligence of the state? Does he lose sight of the fact that it was this same "gang" that made the state what it is—one of the grandest commonwealths in this glorious union of states—a state whose sacred soil it is a pity to have desecrated by the foot of a thing like Marion Butler?—Gold Leaf.

LITTLE BUSINESS DONE.

The House Spends the Day in Eulogizing Hobart.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The greater portion of the session of the house today was devoted to eulogies upon the life and public services of the late Vice-President Hobart. The tributes paid to his memory were not the usual perfunctory eulogies, but breathed the love and admiration and respect in which he was universally held. Those who spoke were Messrs. Gardner, Stewart, Parker, Fowler and Daly, of New Jersey; Mr. Payne, of New York; Messrs. Dalzell and Broslus, of Pennsylvania; Mr. Richardson, of Tennessee; and Mr. Griggs, of Georgia. Before the eulogy began the conference report on the census bill was adopted and an attempt was made to pass a bill to pay the Australian Cable Company the cost of repairing the Manila cable, which Dewey cut just prior to his great victory. Opposition developed, however, and it went over.

During the discussion Mr. Ray, (N. Y.) pointed out that since the American occupation had done more business in a single year than it would have done in twenty years had the war not occurred. Mr. Moody (Mass.) argued that the law of nations was settled that the property of neutrals within the theatre of war operations had to take its chance.

The urgent deficiency bill was sent to the conference, conferees named by ing Livingston (Ga.), Barney (Wis.), and Cannon (Ill.).

Mr. Payne (N. Y.), the leader of the majority and Mr. Richardson (Tenn.), the leader of the minority, each paid an impressive tribute to the memory of the late Vice President. Mr. Grover (Ohio), in a warm eulogy said Mr. Hobart was the first Vice President within his recollection who gave dignity and value and executive cooperation to the office. He said when the present tariff law hung in the balance in conference no one man did as much to effect the result as he.

Mr. Dilliver (La.), delivered an eloquent tribute, concluding as follows: "Grateful to his countrymen for the honor they had given him, he set himself to deliver the office of Vice-President from the cheap and petulant influences that have always beset it. How well he succeeded all men know and it is not too much to say that had he lived he would have drawn to himself such a measure of popular enthusiasm that his countrymen would have invited him to step from the second chariot into the first."

After other eulogies the house at 4:30 p. m. adjourned.

Free of Charge.

Any adult suffering from a cold settled on the breast, bronchitis, throat or lung troubles of any nature, who will call at Grissom & Fordham's, will be presented with a sample bottle of Boschee's German Syrup, free of charge. Only one bottle is given to one person, and none to children without order from parents. No throat or lung remedy ever had such a sale as Boschee's German Syrup in all parts of the civilized world. Twenty years ago millions of bottles were given away, and your druggist will tell you its success was marvelous. It is really the only throat and lung trouble generally endorsed by physicians. Only 75-cent bottle will cure or prove its value. Sold by dealers in all civilized countries.

Scribbler—"Is your poetical friend a cripple?" Srawler—"No; why?" Scribbler—"Oh, nothing; only he seems to write verses without feet."

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters; and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

A Thousand Tongues.

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard st., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"It soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c. and $1. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store; every bottle guaranteed.

Bobs—"She's a perfect picture." Sibbs—"Yes; she's pretty well painted."

Gaining a Wide Reputation.

As a cure for rheumatism Chamberlain's Pain Balm is gaining a wide reputation. D. B. Johnston, of Richmond, Ind., has been troubled with that ailment since 1862. In speaking of it he says: "I never found anything that would relieve me until I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It acts like magic with me. My foot was swollen and pained me very much, but one good application of Pain Balm relieved me. For sale by O. E. Holton, druggist."

IN A FIRE AT NIGHT.

A DRUMMER'S EXPERIENCE IN A BLAZING HOTEL.

What He Had Planned to Do in Just Such a Contingency and What He Really Did When the Opportunity Offered itself.

"It's queer—not to say a source of chagrin—the difference between our intentions and our performances, isn't it?" said a commercial traveler at one of the hotels the other night. "I was in the Hotel Baldwin fire in San Francisco and lost everything I had along with me, including a thousand and odd dollars' worth of jewelry and all of my simple cases but one, and I was glad to get out with my life at that. It was the first hotel fire in which I had figured. I had often mentally calculated upon what I should do in case a hotel in which I was a guest should begin to conflagrate. I was going to be the coolest headed man within a radius of many miles. If the fire should break out in the middle of the night while I was in bed, I intended to get up very coolly upon being awakened, deliberately slip on enough clothing to keep me out of the hands of the police upon making my appearance, get my money and then pick up my most valuable sample case and the valise in which I had packed articles of clothing in current use and walk out, leaving the rest of my gear to take its chance upon the fire being quenched. On my way through the corridors, in case I met up with any beautiful, supplicating maidens or any aged, incapable women, I had it all pictured how I would drop my two grips and take them down the seething staircase, one on each arm, presenting a heroic and inspiring spectacle as I emerged from the caldron of flame.

"Well, what happened? Luckily for me, I had a third story front room in the Baldwin. The fire broke out in the basement along toward 8 o'clock in the morning. I snored luxuriously until about a dozen engines were throwing streams on the lower portion of the structure. When I was in the middle of a dream that I was standing in front of a lot of big stores on a great business thoroughfare, throwing croquet balls through huge plate glass windows—it was the smashing glass down below that got me into that state of dreaming—I woke up. The glare in my room was something luminous. Did I slowly stretch, say to myself, 'Here's that long waited for fire, and it's up to me to be the man of the hour and the real thing'?"

"Not much did I! I just hopped up like a man who finds a family of centipedes in his bed. I grabbed a pair of rubbers that were lying alongside my bed and put them on the wrong feet, giving all the time during the performance a realistic exhibition of a man undergoing a swamp chill. Then I snatched a mackintosh that I had thrown over my trunk on coming in the night before and folded it after considerable difficulty, owing to my chill tremblings, over my pyjamas. Then I reached for a hat, and of course it was about my neck to get the worst hat I owned out of half a dozen scattered over the room. Then I made for the door. I want you to understand that I made for the door in a hurry too.

"On my way to the door I stumbled over one of my sample cases and kicked it over in front of the door. I had to pick it up in order to open the door, and so I hung on to it and took it along with me. I afterward found it to be the least consequential sample case I had, one that I could very easily have dispensed with compared with those that I lost. Jewelry? Money? Duds? I wasn't thinking any more of them when I frantically unlocked and unbarred that door of mine than I was of taking a balloon before breakfast in the morning and starting for the north pole. I just wanted to get out, that's all. The halls were filled with smoke, I found, but after ten years of stopping annually at the Baldwin, generally in the same room, I knew the stairways and the route down to the lobby pretty well, and I just went on my head over heels, mouth and nose and made the rush.

"D'y'e suppose that if I had met 40 of the most beautiful maidens on the globe—supplicating, imploring maidens—standing there confused in that third floor hallway I'd have picked 'em up one in each arm and, permitting them to gently nestle up against my mackintosh, have carried them triumphantly down the stairs and out into the street and under the broad arch of heaven and all that? No, I wouldn't have. It's grievous and growsome to have to confess it, but I'd just have yelled at them to follow my route and then have kept on getting over territory myself. I fell down the first flight of stairs, from top to bottom, then picked myself up with the one idea of getting out, scampered to the eighth floor, unlocked the door and fell down those. I lit on the flagging of the lobby, and in two more seconds I was in the street. When, a few minutes later, I reflected upon my low and the general lamlike character of my conduct, did I want to go back and get my things and do the whole thing over again right and in accordance with my preconceived intentions in case of a hotel fire? Nope. I was content to stand there in the street and figure how I'd perform the next time I got similarly caught."—Washington Star.

An Undertaking.

"No, dear. He knows that I know he doesn't mean it."—Chicago Record.

The Cruel Knife!

It is absolutely useless to expect a surgical operation to cure cancer, or any other blood disease. The cruelty of such treatment is illustrated in the alarming number of deaths which result from it. The disease is in the blood, and hence can not be cut out. Nine times out of ten the surgeon's knife only hastens death.

My son had a most malignant cancer, for which the doctors said an operation was the only hope. The operation was a severe one and it was necessary to cut down to the bone and scrape it. Before a great while the cancer returned, and began to grow rapidly. We gave him many remedies without relief, and finally upon the advice of a friend, decided to try S. S. S. (Swift's Specific) and within the second bottle he was cured. The cancer disappeared entirely, and he was cured. The cure was a permanent one, for he is now seventeen years old, and has never had a sign of the dread disease to return. S. S. S. is sold by all druggists.

Absolutely the only hope for cancer is Swift's Specific.

S. S. S. For the Blood

as it is the only remedy which goes to the very bottom of the blood and forces out every trace of the disease. S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable, and contains no potash, mercury, or other mineral.

Books on Cancer will be mailed free to any address by the Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.

Manager Martin, of the Pierson drug store, informs us that he is having a great run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He sells five bottles of that medicine to one of any other kind, and it gives great satisfaction. In these days of la grippe there is nothing like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to stop the cough, heal up the sore throat and lungs and give relief in a very short time. The sales are growing and all who try it are pleased with its prompt action.—South Chicago Daily Calumet. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

The stool of repentance is harder for some people to climb than the city hall tower.

Glorious News.

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of cholera, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved, that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, scabies, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist. Guaranteed.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Muggins—"I wish the boss would fix some other day than Friday for pay day." Bugles—"Why?" Muggins—"Well, there's Blyones. He owes me $13, and he's too superstitious to pay me on Friday and that's the only day he has any money."

Baldness Can be Cured

Just so long as there is a particle of hair left in the hair roots. The fact that the hair is smooth and shining is no positive proof that the roots beneath are strong. Deep down beneath the skin, hair roots may yet exist, filled with latent vitality, and all that is required is the proper agent to bring the beautiful head of hair to the surface and maintain it in the proper position of the proper agent.

Seven Sutherland Sisters'

preparations furnish the easiest, surest and quickest way to acquire hair there is or is not latent. Life beneath a head bare of hair. Why not get it?

HIGH POINT FALLS IN LINE

In Compulsory Vaccination—An Old
Nail-Other News.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, Jan. 27

At a called meeting of the board of aldermen held in the mayor's office last night it was decided to order compulsory vaccination of all persons living or working daily in High Point.
Any person residing or working in the city neglecting or refusing to be vaccinated shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not exceeding $50 or imprisonment not exceeding 30 days. Any person not able to pay the charges of vaccination on application to any physician may be "scratched" free of charge.

On and after February 1st a house to house canvass will be made and vaccination will be forced. Any person then refusing will be taken to the jail and taken before the mayor.

The ordinance as passed is in force from and after date—January 27th, 1900.

I have been handed a nail by Rev. T.
E. Anderson which came from a plank on the Friends' meeting house at Rock Creek, Randolph county. The nail is said to be over a hundred and seven years old, as a record kept of the building shows. It is hand made, as are all the nails in the building. The present weatherboarding, framing, roofing, etc., is the same that was put on over 107 years ago, and with a few exceptions, appears to be able to stand a good many more winter storms.

Nails in those times are said to have cost 40 cents per pound.

Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION.

Preparations for the Annual Meeting
Here Next March.

Greensboro is making active preparations for the annual state convention of the North Carolina Young Men's Christian Association, which by invocation of the majority of the pastors of the city and a large number of business men, is to be held here March 2 to 11th inclusive. It is expected that a large number of delegates and a goodly number of prominent Christian workers and ministers of the state will be in attendance, besides a number of visiting gentlemen from other states. The state executive committee is making an effort to present a program even stronger and more interesting than any former convention.

In addition to the general committee, which has the general oversight of the arrangements, the following local committees have been appointed:

Committee of arrangements—R. M.
Phillips (chairman), Lee G. Wharton,
A. M. Scales, E. L. Sides, Frank C.
Boyles.

Reception committee—J. Norman Willis (chairman), C. C. McClain, C.
P. Young, C. W. Petty, T. A. Glascock, T. M. Brown.

Committee on homes—Lee W. Crawford, Jr., and one member to be added from each church in the city.

In due time other necessary committees will be appointed and further announcements made in regard to arrangements, program, home, etc.

The modern and most effective cure for constipation and all liver troubles
—the famous little pills known as Dr.
Witt's Little Early Risers. Howard
Gardner.

Notice.
Owing to the detention by sickness of Jas. S. Moore, financial reporter of Guilford Lodge No. 1777, Knights of Honor, B. E. Jones, with M. G. Newell and Company, has been appointed to collect assessments and receipts for same. J. M. Walker, Dictator.

He Fooled the Surgeons.
All doctors told Benick Hamilton, of West Jefferson, Ohio, after suffering 18 months from rectal fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest cure on earth, and the best salve in the world. 25 cents a box.
Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

Men's four dollar high cut tan hunting shoes will be sold for the next ten days at $2.75 and their $3.50 high-cut russian and black line at $2.50 at Thacker & Brockmann's.

"I am indebted to One Minute Cough Cure for my health and life. It cured me of lung trouble following grippe."
Thousands owe their lives to this never failing remedy. It cures coughs, cold, croup, bronchitis, pneumonia,
grippe and throat and lung troubles.
Its early use prevents consumption. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Howard Gardner.

Placing Your Life Insurance in Some Companies
IS LIKE KEEPING YOUR MONEY IN A PASTE BOARD BOX INSTEAD OF A MODERN SAFE. A Modern Safe is a place of safety for money, so is the OLD PENN MUTUAL LIFE of Philadelphia, which guarantees to pay you a large interest on your money that you place with them for safe-keeping, and gives you the best protection for the least money.
Provide for your loved ones after you are gone by taking a Life Insurance Policy in the Penn Mutual, which is payable immediately upon satisfactory proof of death.
We will take pleasure in explaining the plans to you
